Why join us?

- Diverse Caseload: Work with clients in geriatrics, post-surgical rehab, mobility training, orthopedics, neurology, and injury recovery.
- Varied Work Environments: We provide care in homes, apartments, care homes, and workplaces—no two days are the same.
- Total Flexibility: Set your own hours and create a schedule that suits you.
- Remote Charting: Use our user-friendly online system to chart from anywhere.
- Collaborative Team: Work closely with a passionate group of physical therapists (PTs) and therapists assistants (TAs) committed to client success.
- Mentorship & Support: Learn from experienced therapists with over a decade of experience in mobile physio.
- Ongoing Education: Access an education stipend to support professional development courses.
- In-Services & Knowledge Sharing: Participate in regular team sessions to grow and share your skills.

Who we are looking for:

- A licensed Physiotherapist in good standing with CPTBC (must have a valid driver's license and own vehicle)
- A clinician passionate about community health, mobile care, and working outside traditional clinic settings
- Must be comfortable working independently and have exceptional communication skills
- New Graduates are welcome to apply
